

AURORA

AURORA PEACE TALKS

Join us for the Aurora Peace Talks - an annual Lecture Series organised by Aurora Karazin University Peace Education Hub that focuses on peace, justice, and conflict resolution in Ukraine. The opening edition features Scholars at Risk sharing academic expertise and personal stories.

Between Copenhagen and Kharkiv researching resilience 26th of September 2024, 15.00 CET | Serhii Prokopenko, MSc

Serhii Prokopenko shares building academic experiences between Denmark and Ukraine amid martial law and Russian invasion challenges in Kharkiv. He discusses discontinuities researchers face in Ukraine, unique frontline area data insights, and daily life on the border between regular city life and the frontline.

Energy communities as the key for Ukraine's energy security 17th of October 2024, 15.00 CET | Albina Dioba, Ph.D.

Join Albina Dioba as she examines the pivotal role of energy communities in bolstering Ukraine's energy security, with a specific focus on their integration within the EU-framework. Energy communities serve as an innovative mechanism for energy governance, empowering local actors to actively participate in the generation, distribution, and utilization of renewable energy resources.

Becoming Part of a Community: The Process of Ukraine's Accession to the European Union 4th of November 2024, 15.00 CET | Assoc. Prof. Manuele Citi

The European Council initiated negotiations for Ukraine's EU accession due to Russia's aggression. The process involves meeting institutional and economic criteria to align with EU standards. Prof. Manuel Citi will provide context and discuss the political complexities and implications of Ukrainian accession to the EU.

Public Discourse and Academic Research in Representing People Under Occupation: Are war-caused conflicts transformable? 16th of December 2024, 15.00 CET | Prof. Yuliia Soroka, Ph.D.

In this talk, Yuliia Soroka focuses on analyzing wartime power dynamics, social hierarchies, and Ukrainian perspectives under occupation. Exploring challenges in analyzing digitized war data, the impact of Ukrainian discourse on social distinctions, gender perspectives, and the role of scholars' experiences in understanding conflict transformation.

Join us on Zoom

Palacký University
Olomouc

VRIJE
UNIVERSITEIT
AMSTERDAM

V. N. KARAZIN KHARKIV
NATIONAL UNIVERSITY