

Change your perspective!

Become an
ΔAURORAΔ
Student Ambassador

Do you see squares or circles?

Did you know international experience can challenge your views and change your perspective? As an Aurora Student Ambassador, you will broaden your horizon and meet new like-minded students at home, and abroad. You will also get the chance to participate in interesting workshops and events. Join our growing community!

Become an AURORA Student Ambassador

Through the Aurora Student Ambassador programme, you will join the Aurora Community, get access to international opportunities and contribute to positive change in European Education!

How it works:

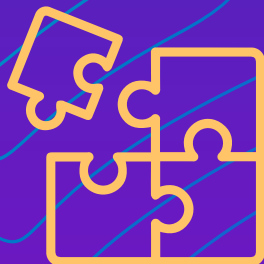

After signing up, your university will choose up to 15 ambassadors

You will join the local Aurora Community for a personalised experience

You can connect to Aurora-project with local task team leaders

You will work with the Aurora Student Council to grow the Aurora Student Community

“For those unfamiliar with Aurora: if you’ve ever thought about joining an Aurora project or conference, take this as your sign to do it! You’ll gain fresh perspectives, friendships that cross borders, and a deeper understanding of what’s possible in higher education.”

Ari, Copenhagen Business School
